Reference CENTRE MEMBERSHIP

Dear Sir

The Association of Painting Craft Teachers has introduced a new category of membership to be known as Centre Membership

Centre Membership is open to all centres and colleges providing education and training in Painting and Decorating.

Each centre is allowed up to three members of staff either full time or part time

Each member of staff must be named on the application form

Each member of staff named on the application form will receive correspondence from the Association including the Artisan the Associations magazine.

Centre members are not entitled to nominate or vote nor are they permitted to hold office in the Association.

Centre members may transfer to full individual membership of the Association on payment of the full individual annual fee.

Centre members may attend any event organised by the Association.

If an attendance fee is required at an event organised by the Association the member attending is responsible for paying such fee.

Please find further details in the enclosed brochure.

If you require further information or you wish to discuss your centres / college eligibility to become a member of the Association contact either:-

THE ASSOCIATION OF PAINTING CRAFT TEACHERS CENTRE MEMBERSHIP

- The Association is a forum for an exchange of ideas for lecturers of Painting and Decorating throughout the United Kingdom. It brings together staff from a common sector, sharing the same aims, aspirations and indeed problems.
- Whether the teaching role is part of a team, or taught in isolation as sole member of staff, it is very beneficial to meet colleagues in other educational institutions.
- Membership of the Association of Painting Craft Teachers provides information on what is happening in the trade and education sectors that may affect your centre and your students.
- Organised seminars keep members up to date with developments in a wide variety of trade products, equipment and materials. These seminars contribute to the personal professional development (CPD) of individuals, keeping their knowledge abreast with current educational and trade thinking.
- The APCT has for many years been a source of collaboration between colleges. This can help reduce workloads for individuals in colleges as joint ventures in curriculum development are distributed amongst the participating members' colleges. With this continued collaboration, the APCT has influence in many areas of the education sector. For example, links exist with the Occupational Working Group, Scottish Painting Craft Teachers Association, the Painting & Decorating Association, the CITB, The Faculty of Decoration and The City and Guilds and all the major manufacturers.
- Members of the A.P.C.T. have worked in partnership with the above, in developing NVQ Qualifications over many years
- Participation of individuals is an essential part of developing the Association. Many established members would agree that those who participate as active members gain most.
- Meetings and social events are conducted in a warm and friendly atmosphere.
- The Association produces a quarterly magazine THE ARTISAN.
Membership of the Association of Painting Craft Teachers is open to all centres that provide education and training in Painting and Decorating subjects.
